

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

CHANDAN MANANSINGH, an individual, and ANGELA NAIRNS, an individual,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:20-cv-01139-DWM

ORDER

On November 6, 2023, the Ninth Circuit issued a memorandum disposition affirming in part, reversing in part, and remanding this matter. [See ECF No. 99.] Specifically, the Ninth Circuit remanded “for limited fact-finding to determine whether Probation Defendants’ conduct prior to June 24, 2017, establishes plausible claims for [intentional infliction of emotion distress] and abuse of process. The district court should also consider, in the first instance, whether the malicious prosecution claim proceeds in light of Thompson v. Clark, 142 S. Ct.

1332 (2022).” [Id. at 8.] A mandate having been subsequently issued, [see ECF No. 104],

IT IS ORDERED THAT the parties must submit a joint proposed briefing schedule to address the issues identified above on or before December 15, 2023.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that proceedings regarding Count 4 shall remain STAYED pending a Court’s decision on those issues. [See ECF No. 89.]

DATED this 4th day of December, 2023.

Donald W. Molloy, District Judge
United States District Court
